Exhibition overview

The 7th World Congress on Controversies in Ophthalmology (COPHy) will bring together ophthalmologists from throughout Europe.

The Congress will focus primarily on the fields of Anterior Segment, Glaucoma, and Retina sections, and also presents controversies in other areas of ophthalmology, such as Neuro-Ophthalmology. Topics will include the treatment of retinal diseases such as diabetic macular edema, the role of anti-VEGF agents versus panretinal photocoagulation in the management of proliferative diabetic retinopathy, the current management of corneal disease with the use of advanced technologies for corneal transplants, and novel medical and surgical glaucoma management methods will be discussed.
