Exhibition overview

For 2014, a new initiative is to begin: The International Review of Bipolar Disorders (IRBD) and The Winter Workshop on Psychosis (WWP) will merge to form a joint conference chaired by Prof Kostas Fountoulakis. The new conference will be called: THE INTERNATIONAL REVIEW OF PSYCHOSIS AND BIPOLARITY This move to merge IRBD and Winter Workshop on Psychosis is a recognition that diagnosis rarely follows the theoretical classification which sees Schizophrenia and Bipolar Disorders as two distinct groups. This separation of conditions can create an unnatural and restrictive framework for all stakeholders in patient care. The new IRPB will address this relationship bringing the best of the cutting-edge, research-based Winter Workshop on Psychosis conference together with the expert review, summary style International Review of Bipolar Disorders.

Exhibition details

The four day IRPB programme will consist of keynote speeches, workshops, debates and interactive seminars, led by the world's leading experts in Psychosis and Bipolarity discussing the latest thinking and research.
