Exhibition overview

The goal of the WSCTS is to bring together practitioners in the field of cardiothoracic surgery (surgeons, physicians, anaesthetists, perfusionists, nurses, surgical assistants, care practitioners, etc) from all corners of the globe, and allow interaction with each other, so they can improve their knowledge, and share experiences.

The 25th anniversary meeting will be a special celebration meeting, and will have as its theme “Remembering History, Understanding Recent Advances”. There will be plethora of postgraduate educational symposia covering a wide range of topics from the entire spectrum of cardiac and thoracic surgery. Delegates will have free access to all postgraduate lectures.

World leading experts will provide insight into the latest advances, while pioneers from the past will reflect on their experiences and experiments from the past.

Industry leading companies will be at the Exhibition to keep delegates up-to-date with recent innovations and developments.

Our trainees are the future of our speciality. There will be special sessions focussed on the needs of trainees, providing them with information of the latest training opportunities in different parts of the world. Leading educational experts and postgraduate tutors from across the globe will be available to provide advice.

There will be special sessions for allied health professionals including nurses, perfusionists, surgical care practitioners, and surgical assistants. Up to 28 CPD points will be available to the delegates.
