Exhibition overview

The European Society of Cardiology (ESC) represents over 80,000 cardiology professionals, principally from across Europe and the Mediterranean basin, but also from the rest of the world.

The ESC provides an array of scientific and educational activities, such as the production and continuous updating of clinical practice guidelines, the organisation of educational courses and initiatives, pan-European surveys on specific disease areas. It also organises the ESC Congress, the largest cardiology meeting in the world.

In 2014, the ESC Congress will take place in August/September in Barcelona, Spain.
