Exhibition overview

The European Society of Intensive Care Medicine (ESICM) is an association of individuals founded in 1982 in Geneva, Switzerland.. The society supports and promotes the advancement of knowledge in intensive care medicine, in particular the promotion of the highest standards of multidisciplinary care of critically ill patients and their families through education, research and professional development. It aims to do this by:

- promoting and coordinating activities in the different fields of intensive care medicine
- fostering research and education in these fields
- providing recommendations for optimising facilities for intensive care medicine in Europe
- organising and coordinating international congresses and meetings.

LIVES 2014, the next ESICM Congress will take place in September 2014 in Barcelona. Spain
