Exhibition overview

The EUROGIN 2015 Congress will review current scientific developments in the field of cervical cancer and human papillomavirus related diseases, raising the public health profile and increasing the need for responsible health services in this area. The event endeavors to translate scientific and evidence-based research into clinical practice while highlighting the following aspects:

- Recent advances and updated scientific insights in HPV screening, testing and management
- The impact of HPV and associated cancers on public health
- Strategies to prevent and treat HPV related diseases
- Exchanging information on early detection, new diagnostic and therapeutic procedures and prevention strategies including screening and HPV vaccination

Exhibition details

Main scientific and clinical sessions include:

HPV Screening
HPV prophylactic vaccines
HPV testing and molecular markers
HPV infections

Colposcopy

Therapeutic vaccines

Triage of HPV positive women

Head and Neck HPV associated diseases

Adenocarcinoma of the cervix

Management of vulvar carcinoma

The programme includes an International Forum on HPV and Head & Neck Cancer

Oropharyngeal cancer is one of the fastest rising cancers in many countries. This has been attributed to the rise in HPV-related head and neck cancer. This new disease entity appears to have significantly better survival outcomes. However, important questions arise regarding its natural history, diagnosis, patient counselling and the best management regimes.

Other scientific sessions:

Epidemiology

Biology and Immunology

Carcinogenesis

Anus and male HPV related diseases

Self-sampling

Health economics and modeling

HPV associated diseases in non anogenital sites
