Exhibition overview

The annual EPH Conferences are considered the premier European gathering of public health professionals worldwide. Delegates include researchers, policymakers, practitioners and teachers in public health and many other related fields.

The European Public Health Conference Foundation, the European Public Health Association (EUPHA) and the Austrian Public Health Association are coming together to organise the 9th EPH Conference from 9-12 November 2016 at the Austria Center in Vienna.

The main theme of the conference is, 'All for Health - Health for All' and highlights the importance of public health knowledge with the vision of overcoming spatial, social, cultural, professional or ideological boundaries. The main theme is complemented with sub-themes touching on every aspect and current affairs of public health and health care.
