Exhibition overview

The International Confederation of Midwives (ICM) is a non-governmental organisation and the world's largest alliance of midwifery associations. Its vision, mission and aims underpin its global work. With over 100 Member Associations, led by midwives who determine their own governance and activities ICM is the global voice of over 250,000 midwives in 98 countries.

Exhibition details

The aims of the Congress include:

- To provide a forum where the advances in maternity, newborn and women's health care can be shared, evaluated and monitored.
- To provide an environment where midwives from around the world can draw on the skills knowledge and experience of colleagues for application in their own countries.

- To focus on the development of midwifery knowledge and skills which will address the needs of women and their babies in the diverse health systems across the globe.
