Exhibition overview

The International Society of Ultrasound in Obstetrics and Gynecology (ISUOG) was founded in 1991. The society has some 6,450 members in 124 countries and is the most important society in its field. ISUOG supports its members through its:

- annual World Congress - attracting around 1,200 delegates;
- educational approved courses;
- and its peer-reviewed research journal "Ultrasound in Obstetrics & Gynecology " which is circulated to over 4,000 destinations worldwide.

ISUOG's World Congress is held in September or October each year. The event provides attendees with the opportunity to learn, review and update clinical and technical knowledge, as well as compare and relate ultrasound knowledge and skills with peers and industry experts.

In 2014, the World Congress will take place in September in Barcelona, Spain.
