Exhibition overview

The European Association for Cranio-Maxillo Facial Surgery (EACMFS) was established in 1970. It has become the most prominent and highly-respected professional group for the specialty in Europe and has a high profile in other parts of the world. Its objectives are to promote cranio-maxillo-facial surgery (CMFS) in theory and practice and attempt to establish uniform training requirements in Europe and encourage these worldwide.

The Journal of Cranio-Maxillo Facial Surgery is the official publication of the association. It covers all aspects of CMFS surgery and includes original research papers, invited editorials, technical innovations, new instrumentation, selected case reports, book reviews and forthcoming events.

The 22nd Congress of EACMFS will take place in September 2014 in Prague, Czech Republic.
