Exhibition overview

The Meeting will focus on the major breakthroughs and advances in Neurosurgery, from clinical practice to research, technology and innovation for a top-level scientific program, including many opportunities for young neurosurgeons through hands-on and educational courses. Rome is listed by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site and is one of the greatest open air museums, recalling about 3000 years of the history of Civilization. For this reason the Meeting theme is "From ancient Rome to modern world Neurosurgery".
