Exhibition overview

The World Stroke Organization (WSO) is the world's leading organization in the fight against stroke. It was established in 2006 and currently has more than 1200 individual members and over 60 society members from 85 different countries. Members include scientists, physicians, health providers, or other professionals who are involved in the clinical or scientific aspects of cerebrovascular disease

The organisation's mission is to reduce the global burden of stroke through prevention, treatment and long term care. It collaborates closely with the World Health Organization (WHO).

The 9th World Stroke Congress will take place Istanbul, Turkey in 2014.
